Iowa State University is a great institution because absolutely wonderful people come here to work and to make a real commitment to excellence. This process is designed to recognize individual staff members, particularly those people who might not otherwise receive recognition for outstanding work that has been done within the past year. Iowa State University recognizes that sometimes an individual does something above and beyond the call of duty, and/or does something extraordinarily well, or acts in such a way as to make a very real difference in the institution.

For this reason, the Professional & Scientific Council is calling for nominations of P&S candidates for the "P&S CYtation Award."

Criteria: The person must be a P&S employee (on- or off-campus). The person must be nominated for performing above and beyond the call of duty, and/or doing something extraordinarily well, or acting in such a way as to make a very real difference in the institution.

Please Note: The nomination needs to be for work done within the past year (from date of submission). This is an individual award, not intended as a group award.

What happens if a candidate wins? The President will present each recipient with a certificate of recognition. A one-year family pass to Reiman Gardens will be sent separately from Reiman Gardens. Note: the pass cannot be given in anyone else’s name other than the award recipient and the offer is void if the recipient is already a member of Reiman Gardens. Nominators and awardees will be notified of the award. Additional announcements may appear in Inside Iowa State, the P&S Council newsletter, or other Iowa State publications. Twelve to sixteen awards will be given annually.

Who can make nominations? Any employee of Iowa State University can submit a CYtation Award nomination for any P&S employee.
