

Did You Know Our OMBUDS Training Are Now Eligible for Adventure2 Points?

This semester, the Peer Advocacy and Policy Committee is working with the OMBUDS office to continue offering a variety of sessions. We have two left this semester: Conflict Management and Ethical Leadership. The Conflict Management session is on March 26th from 9-11 am, and the sign-up can be found on Workday Learning. The Ethical Leadership session is on April 25th from 9-10:30 am; the sign-up can also be found on Workday Learning. Both sessions are almost at capacity, so sign up quickly or get added to the waitlist!

For those who attend and complete each training course, you'll receive 50 Adventure2 points to help you advance through the levels.

If you don't have an Adventure2 profile, it's not too late to start! Sign up, take the initial assessment, and advance to level 2 quickly!
