Staff Spotlights

This month we feature Sadie Johnson, Undergraduate Recruitment Coordinator (Program Coordinator II) for the College of Engineering. Sadie recently led a project where 20 mobile device charging stations were installed in various College of Engineering buildings. Sadie is dedicated to serving student needs. She says: "Students live on their mobile devices and they constantly need to charge them. The service is something people have come to expect, especially from a college of engineering and technology." Check out the article
