

Division of Student Affairs Updates

Toyia K. Younger, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President for Student Affairs
April 1, 2021

Toyia K. Younger, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President for Student Affairs

Key Updates

Supporting Generation Z

How 2020 has shaped student affairs work

Society impacting the student experience

Partnerships

SUPPORTING GEN Z

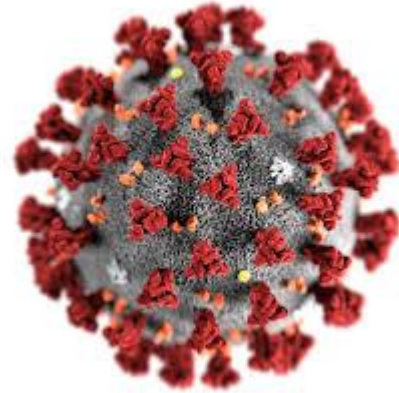

August 2020

STUDENT AFFAIRS WORK IN 2020

- Mental health
- COVID-19

BEYOND ISU: HOW SOCIETY IMPACTS OUR WORK

BEYOND ISU: HOW SOCIETY IMPACTS OUR WORK

“Time and again, powerful and brilliant men and women have produced racist ideas in order to justify the racist policies of their era, in order to redirect the blame for their era’s racial disparities away from those policies and onto Black people.”- Ibram X. Kendi

PARTNERSHIPS

- Advocate for the holistic student and outstanding ISU experience
 - Student needs continue to evolve
 - All students should feel welcomed and a sense of belonging
- Assessment
 - Division of Student Affairs Director of Assessment and Research, Dr. Matt Pistilli
 - Opportunities to share stories of student success through data and analysis
- Fall 2021 Planning
 - Necessary planning for a successful 2021 fall semester
 - Returning to “normal” for students, staff, and faculty

QUESTIONS?

Toyia K. Younger, Ph.D.

Senior Vice President for Student Affairs

tyounger@iastate.edu

515-294-4420

www.studentaffairs.iastate.edu

