

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

University Human Resources

Family Support Programs

Child Care & Family Services | WorkLife

Ed Holland, Director of Benefits & WorkLife

Cris Broshar, Worklife Specialist

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

University Human Resources

Family Support Programs

Child Care & Family Services | WorkLife

Ed Holland, Director of Benefits & WorkLife

Cris Broshar, Worklife Specialist

Our Office

The Child Care & Family Services office is under University Human Resources and located in University Village. We strive to support the academic, professional, and personal growth and success of the whole person by offering quality programming and services for ISU families with dependent care needs.

Child Care Services

Financial Assistance

Programs & Services

Family-oriented Programming

Lactation Spaces

Child Care Services

- Three on-site centers| Capacity = 232 children
- Ages birth through school age
- Filled to capacity every year of operation
- NAEYC Accredited, Iowa QRS Level 5
- Campus child care centers serve as teaching facilities for College of Human Sciences students

Family-oriented Programming

- Family Friday Webinar Series
 - 1-hour virtual sessions facilitated by ISU faculty and staff
 - Wide-range of topics aimed to support parents and families in the areas of child guidance and discipline, racism, raising global citizens, empathic listening, fostering creativity and independence

- Family Forum
 - Facilitated conversations which aim to support collaborative problem solving
 - “What Do We Do About Child Care?”
- Family-friendly Learning & Living Communities
 - In development; target launch Fall 2020
 - Communities of belonging which aim to provide support, connection, and education

QUESTIONS?

Ed Holland, Director Benefits & WorkLife
edhollan@iastate.edu

Cris Broshar, WorkLife Specialist
cbroshar@iastate.edu

